

EIS001214

FEB 08 2000

- 1 The plan to transport nuclear waste across the country to Yucca Mountain, Nevada is expensive and dangerous but these are not the primary reasons that it is a bad plan. Shipping this material away from the sites where it is manufactured shouts in a quiet voice, "We must make more room for this stuff that we don't want." This plan is tacit encouragement for us to continue to foul our own nest!

John D. Davidson, MD
450 West Lockwood
Webster Groves, MO 63119
(314) 968-1033
email: jddhbo@pol.net

